Don't just take our word for it

"North Norfolk Living is the single most important local magazine that we use for advertising our complex rural retail site. Not only does the advertising work but the features and promotions deliver too."

"It is vital that we reach both local residents and visitors and NNL delivers to both audiences which is surprisingly rare. It is basically our go-to magazine for everything fun so why wouldn't you advertise in it?"
Diana Brocklebank Scott, owner of Creake Abbey

"We have advertised for the past 10 years and still new customers visit and say they saw our advert in the NNL mag. It's a transient market with lots of holiday lets and the circulation definitely reaches new customers for us."
Jo Griffiths, owner of Joyful Living at Drove Orchards, Thornham

"We use North Norfolk Living regularly simply because it works for us. It reaches an excellent cross-section of readers, including locals and visitors which is vital for a small business to get their news out there."

Sarah Whitley, owner of Pinkfoot Gallery, Cley
